GREAT BRITAIN AND TURKEY ARE AT WAR; VIZIER'S APOLOGY CAME TOO LATE TO RUSSIA

A Heavy Vote Indicative of Much Interest

Fair Weather and Moderate Temperature Prevailed Over Ohio In General and the Hard Fought Battle On the State Ticket and Amendments Were Factors In Getting the Voters Out Early and In Good Numbers

HALF THE VOTE CAST AT 9 O'CLOCK IN SOME CITIES

President Wilson Went to Princeton to Aid In Electing Democratic Congressman In His District—Rain Fell at Cleveland—Prohibition Workers Caused Three Arrests at Toledo—Vote In Cincinnati Heavier Than for Years—Unusual Interest Taken Locally—In Other States.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 3.—Fair weather and moderate temperature over most of the state except Cleveland, combined with hard fought contests on the prohibition question and state tickets, brought out a record vote over Ohio in the early morning hours today. Many cities reported that between 30 and 40 per cent. of the Urban voters had gone to the polls before eight o'clock. All political headquarters here pretended to be pleased at the prospects of good weather to bring out the farmer vote which was claimed by leaders of each party.

Despite rain at Cleveland, indications were that the vote would be heavy. Toledo and Springfield also reported early showers but these had ceased before 8 o'clock. Prospects were that the total vote in the state would be increased by at least 15 per cent. over the vote of 1,048,493 for governor two years ago. Dayton, the home of Governor James M. Cox, the Democratic candidate for re-election, reported an unusually heavy vote in the early morning hours. Cleveland also reported a large early vote despite the fact that rain was falling. At Toledo up to 8:30 o'clock one-third of the registered voters had cast their ballots. On complaint of prohibition workers the police arrested three men charged with illegal registration shortly after the polls opened in Toledo.

At Lima the voting was heavy on both the state officers and the different amendments. At Akron forty per cent. of the vote had been polled in many precincts before 8 o'clock and at Springfield about 30 per cent. had voted. Portsmouth, Canton, Newark, Zanesville and other cities also reported unusual interest in the election.

In Cincinnati and Hamilton county the voting was heavier than in former years. Many more workers were at the polls than at other elections, the majority of them being interested in the outcome of the vote on the liquor amendments.

The Anti-Saloon League headquarters gave out a statement expressing pleasure over the fair weather, because it was assumed a large number of farmers would go to the polls and vote for statewide prohibition. Officers of the Home Rule Association also declared the good weather would help their fight to defeat the prohibition amendment and adopt the home rule proposition.

Charles M. Schwab Lands In England Presumably to Get Contracts for War Supplies

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Monday, Nov. 3.—The White Star liner Olympic sailed from New York Oct. 21 for Glasgow, which had put into Lough Swilly on the north of Ireland. Oct. 29 presumably seeking safety from the German mines in the northern waters, reached Belfast this morning. From October 28 to Nov. 2, the Olympic was at anchor in a remote part of Lough Swilling. With the Democrats, Republicans and Progressives were almost deserted today. Political activity has been transferred to county, ward and precinct organizations, who were expected to make final appeals to voters as they went to the polling places. Orders went out from both suffrage and anti-suffrage headquarters for women to keep strictly away from the voting booths.

Most candidates for high office on the state tickets had gone to their homes today and expected to get returns there tonight. Governor Cox will be in his office in the state house and Attorney General Hogan, Democratic candidate for United States senator will be in his office also. Frank B. Willis, Republican gubernatorial candidate will spend the evening at his home in Ada, and Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate for senator will be at home in Marion. James R. Garfield and Arthur L. Garford progressive candidates for governor and senator respectively, went to their homes today after completing speaking campaigns. Mr. Garfield lives in Mentor and Mr. Garford in Elyria.

Hot congressional and county contests added interest to the election in many communities, but in most parts of the state prohibition was the main issue, with state party tickets contests secondary.

Chiefs of police in many cities issued special instructions to officers to guard against vote buying. Banks closed at noon, since the last general assembly proclaimed election day a legal holiday for banks. Saloons were also closed during voting hours. Akron reported a particularly heavy vote early today. It was estimated 40 per cent. of the voters had gone to the polls before 8 o'clock in many precincts. Election officials declared the vote would exceed 30,000, an increase over two years ago of nearly 10,000.

Columbus voters registered their ideas on whether dance halls shall be licensed and regulated by city officials, according to a council ordinance on which a referendum was called. Church services were held as early as 5 o'clock in many Columbus churches and there were temperance parades and other spectacular features to the election in the capital city.

Results of the elections on heads of state tickets and the amendments can be forecast with essential accuracy by 10:30 tonight, it is thought. If any contests are very close, the hour may be later, however. Unofficial.

First Photograph of Japanese Landing In China for Attack On German Fort.

The landing of Japanese marines at Tsing Tao for a land attack on the German fortifications at Kiauchau was the subject of heated communications between the German government and China. When the Japanese found it would be a long naval fight to take the fortifications they did not hesitate to land forces on Chinese territory. Of course, it was generally acknowledged that this violated Chinese neutrality, but the Chinese government was not strong enough to make forcible objection. This photograph shows the landing of the first marines from a transport ship far out in the harbor.

Bombardment By English Cruiser, Formally Opening Hostilities Was Accompanied By No British Loss

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 3.—The fortified town of Akabah in Arabia, on an arm of the Red Sea, has been shelled by the British cruiser Minerva. There was some loss to the troops holding the position but no British casualties. Akabah is at the head of the Gulf of Akabah, 150 miles east of Suva. The admiral announced this occurrence as follows: "Upon arriving at Akabah the cruiser Minerva, Captain Percival Warleigh, found the place occupied by soldiers and armed natives. One of the soldiers had the appearance of a German officer. The Minerva then shelled the port and the troops. The town was evacuated, and landing parties from the Minerva proceeded to destroy the forts, the barracks, the postoffice and the stores. "There was some loss to the enemy but no British casualties."

PRESIDENT WILSON CASTS HIS VOTE AND
JOINS WITH JUDGES.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Princeton, N. J., Nov. 3.—President Wilson came back to Princeton today to vote to help his party carry his home state of New Jersey. At the railroad station Mr. Wilson was greeted by a large crowd of students who gave him a noisy welcome. Winthrop M. Daniels, interstate commerce commissioner, made the trip with Mr. Wilson. The president walked direct to the polling place, located in a fire engine house. On the way he shook hands with many old friends. It took the President only two minutes to vote for the Democratic candidates for congress, legislature and sheriff. "Number eight-nine" announced the election judge, as the president emerged from the voting booth indicating Mr. Wilson's order in the list of voters. "No. seventy-nine" replied the president, meaning his Princeton class. A general laugh followed. After voting Mr. Wilson visited several friends, walking through the Princeton campus. *****

British Ship Attacks Turkish Barracks On The Egyptian Frontier

English Soldiers Found Troops In That Vicinity, Apparently Under German Command, Acting as Quasi-Turks In Much the Same Manner as Kaiser's Officers On the Warships Breslau and Goeben

RUSSIAN RIGHT WING IS BEARING FIERCE ATTACKS

By Determined Germans, While the Austrians, Hundreds of Miles Away Threaten the Left Wing—Reports of Fall of Przemyel Are Premature—German Assault at Ypres is Believed to Have Been Definitely Repulsed But at Tremendous Cost to the Flower of the British Army.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 3.—Via London—All Egypt from today is placed under martial law. Major General Sir John Grenfell Maxwell, commanding the forces in Egypt, has published a proclamation to the effect that the British government has ordered him to take charge of the military control of Egypt and to insure protection.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 3.—Great Britain and Turkey are at war. Germany has recruited an ally in the east. After 24 hours of uncertainty, during which hope was expressed that the port might make amends for the incidents in the Black Sea, the British admiral announced shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon that British warship had bombarded and had destroyed the Turkish barracks at Akabah, on the Turco-Egyptian frontier.

It was at Akabah that Turkish cavalry patrols were reported yesterday, preparatory to moving into Egypt. There the British found soldiers apparently under German serving as Quasi-Turks, much in the same manner as the German officers remain in charge of the cruisers Breslau and Goeben, and British officials say, there was no course but to open hostilities.

Russia has replied to Turkey's apology for the raids of her navy in the Black Sea with the fateful words "too late", and in London it is thought hardly likely that diplomatic pressure will prevent the war party among the Young Turks from dragging their country into the European embroilment. The events of the past 12 hours show that the grand vizier of Turkey has made every effort to conciliate the entente powers, but the influence of his partisans in the Turkish cabinet is not believed to be great enough to force the port to meet the demands for reparation formulated in the Franco-British notes. So far as Russia is concerned a state of war with Turkey actually exists, and the reply of the Russian foreign minister to the explanation of the grand vizier does not hold out, in the opinion of London any hope for a peaceful outcome of the dispute.

The tumult of battle has rolled back from the Belgian coast, and after the apparent failure of their fierce assault on the English and Belgian lines around Ypres, the Germans evidently are diverting their attack toward a more southerly point. Much activity on the part of the German mobile columns is reported from Belgium and there is evidence that the invaders have not yet exhausted all their resources which are being brought to bear in the campaign to cut their way through to Calais.

The tremendous German assault at Ypres is believed by London observers to have been repulsed decisively. But this has been at terrible cost to the flower of the British army, which apparently has suffered as severely as did the Belgian forces which bore the first brunt of the seacoast battle.

Concerning the situation along the river Alsne, the reports from Berlin and Paris are sharply contradictory. The Germans declare they have made distinct progress while the French assert that all the violent German assaults have failed completely.

In the eastern arena the Russian right wing on the frontier of East Prussia evidently has been sustaining determined attacks from the Germans. In the meantime the Austrians, hundreds of miles away, still threaten the Russian left wing.

Reports of the fall of Przemyel are declared by Petrograd to be premature and due to the capture of four thousand men of the Przemyel garrison, together with a large amount of arms and equipment, when a sortie was attempted.

The safe arrival of the White Star line steamer Olympic at Belfast, has caused much relief here. The detention of this vessel at Lough Swilly in the north of Ireland, gave rise to many rumors of disaster to the great liner, and her narrow escape from the mine field has brought home to the English imagination the grave danger from this source. Today the drastic mine policy of the British admiralty is meeting with general approval. The new mine regulations virtually close the North Sea from the north and navigation which normally follows North Sea routes will be diverted to the English channel. This change in trade routes will give England much better control over neutral shipping, which otherwise would use the North Sea.

BANKS CLOSED

The last Ohio Legislature proclaimed election day a legal holiday for banks and the Newark institutions were closed at noon today.

Russia Issues An Imperial Manifesto Blaming Germany for Inciting Turkey to Take Arms

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 3.—An imperial manifesto on the outbreak of the war with Turkey has been issued in Petrograd, according to the correspondent of Reuters Telegram company in the Russian capital. It reads as follows: "Our confidence in the struggle against Russia, Germany and Austria have incited Turkey into taking arms against this empire. Immediately after the treacherous attack of the Turkish fleet the Russian ambassador received orders to leave Turkey. Russia will receive this fresh aggression on the part of the ancient persecutor of the Christian religion and the Slav peoples with tranquility and confidence in God. The valiant armies of Russia will triumph once again—not for the first time over the Turkish hordes. Once again we will know how to punish the insolent foe of our fatherland. "Our confidence in the invincibility of the ill-advised intervention of Turkey will only hasten the fatal issue to that empire and will open the way for the Russian settlement of problems on the Black Sea coast which have been handed down by our ancestors."

Important to All Women Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women. Many men for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores.

A HEAVY VOTE

(Continued from page 1.) clal returns will be made to the secretary of state's office tomorrow. College communities in the state reported that thousands of students have gone home to vote. Many classes at Ohio State University here were entirely suspended because there were no students to attend them.

EARLY VOTE IN CANTON.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Canton, Nov. 3.—Interest in the proposed amendments, congressional and county tickets brought out over half the vote in Canton by 9 o'clock this morning. A record breaking vote is expected. Weather cloudy and cool.

LONG LINES WAITED BEFORE ELECTION BOOTHS IN CLEVELAND.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Cleveland, Nov. 3.—Long lines of voters waiting in front of every one of the 500 precinct booths early today indicated that Cleveland would cast the biggest vote in its history. The weather was unsettled and a hard shower of rain fell about seven o'clock but this did not seem to keep the voters away.

Wets and dries and woman suffrage workers were out early today making an effort to muster the full strength of voters for their cause. In practically every residence district of the city women were out before daylight attaching yellow cards to the door knobs of houses which urged "vote for woman suffrage."

The dries had challengers stationed at nearly every precinct in the city.

COLORADO.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Denver, Colo., Nov. 3.—Clear skies and moderate temperatures at lover Colorado brought out a heavy vote in the early hours of today. Last night saw the close of an active campaign in which the prohibition and labor issues aroused intense interest. Colorado is electing one United States senator, two representatives and a complete state ticket. The ballot carries sixteen initiatives and referred measures, including a constitutional amendment providing for statewide prohibition.

IOWA.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 3.—Heavy voting throughout the state was reported early today. The contest between Senator Albert B. Cummins and Congressman Maurice Connolly for the United States Senate attracted most attention. Clear and warm weather prevailed.

KENTUCKY.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Louisville, Ky., Nov. 3.—Fair weather brought out a somewhat heavier early vote than usual today in Kentucky where the contests are confined to the election of eleven representatives in congress, two United States senators and a judge of the state court of appeals. Interest centers largely in the senatorial race for the full term between J. C. W. Beckham and Augustus E. Wilson, both former governors of Kentucky and in the prospect of a close vote in the tenth congressional district.

CONNECTICUT.

(Associated Press Telegram.) New Haven, Conn., Nov. 3.—Interest in today's election in Connecticut centered largely in the contest for United States senator. Frank B. Brandegee, the present incumbent is the Republican candidate. Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, the Democratic and Herbert Knox Smith, former United States commissioner of corporations, the Progressive.

The weather was clear and mild. (Associated Press Telegram.) Manchester, N. H., Nov. 3.—Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, a Republican was opposed for re-election today by Raymond R. Stevens, a Democratic congressman and interest in this contest overshadowed the struggle for the governorship and sharp fights for both seats in the house of representatives. The weather was clear and cool.

OKLAHOMA.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 3.—Fair weather in Oklahoma aided in bringing out a heavy vote today. An unusual feat of elections was the heavy socialist vote reported in cotton growing counties. Because of a suit a few months ago that Thomas P. Gore, United States senator said was intended to injure him

Newark Vote Was Out Early And a Large Total Polled In All Precincts In the City

Tuesday morning broke bright and clear and the day was an ideal one for the vote. At about 11 o'clock it clouded and looked as if it might rain but it cleared shortly after, the sun came out and it continued shining all afternoon.

As a consequence of the fine weather together with the great interest taken in this fall's election a heavy vote is being polled. In two precincts nearly three-fourths of the entire registration was reported at 2 o'clock. In several precincts fully two-thirds of the vote was in and in all over one-half of the vote was in. Three tickets were voted on in Newark today: the large ballot containing state and county, the judicial and the four amendments. The precinct election officials have instructions to count the large ballot first, and this will probably be done in many instances, and as a result of the three ballots a number of precincts may not send in their returns until long after midnight tonight.

politically, much interest was manifested in his contest for re-election on the Democratic ticket.

Opposed to him were John H. Burford, republican and W. O. Cromwell, progressive.

MICHIGAN.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Detroit, Mich., Nov. 3.—The strenuous campaign for the governorship made by Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, Democrat, and former Gov. Chase S. Osborn, Republican, caused all party leaders to predict a heavy vote in Michigan if weather conditions are favorable.

During the early morning there were thunderstorms and rain in various sections of the state, but, when the polls opened, generally fair weather was reported. Both Democrats and Republicans claimed to be confident of victory in the gubernatorial race. If the Democrats win, Governor Ferris will be the first Democratic governor re-elected in Michigan.

INDIANA.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 3.—Indiana voters went to the polls early today and the indications were that the vote would be heavy. The greatest interest is in the race for U. S. Senator, Senator B. F. Shively is seeking re-election and is opposed by Hugh T. Miller, republican, and Albert J. Beveridge, Progressive.

The weather was fair. (Associated Press Telegram.) Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—The three cornered fight for the United States senatorship between A. Mitchell Palmer, Democrat, Clifford Pinchot, Progressive, and Bois Penrose, Republican and the struggle between Vance C. McCormick, Democratic-Progressive and Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican for governor, served to bring out a heavy vote in the early hours of the election today throughout Pennsylvania.

The weather was fine. The fact that many voters took a long time to mark their ballots gave rise that much cutting was being done but the slowness of the voters may be due in a measure to the large number of candidates to be voted for.

NEW YORK.

(Associated Press Telegram.) New York, Nov. 3.—National and state issues conspired to bring the electors of New York state to the polls today in numbers that promised a vote like that of a presidential year. Fair weather prevailed. The first opportunity to choose a United States senator by popular vote and the congressional contests aroused as much interest as the struggle for the governorship. Delegates were chosen also to a state constitutional convention which meets next year. The polls close at 5 p. m. and early indications of the general results were expected from several cities that used voting machines.

VERMONT.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Burlington, Vermont, Nov. 2.—Vermont was favored with perfect weather for election today. The interest in the contest for senator between William Dillingham, Republican and Charles A. Prouty, former interstate commerce commissioner, who has the Progressive, Democratic, Prohibition and non-partisan endorsement is expected to result in a heavy vote today.

MASSACHUSETTS.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Boston, Nov. 3.—Fair weather prevailed in Massachusetts today but although the candidates of all parties for state offices and for congress have made an active campaign, popular interest has not appeared to be greatly aroused, and a total vote little larger than that of the "off year" in 1912 was anticipated.

NORTH DAKOTA.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 3.—The contest for U. S. senator between the incumbent Asle J. Gronna, Republican and W. E. Purcell, Democrat attracted a large number of early voters to the polls in North Dakota today and with indications of fair weather a record vote was expected. Keen interest also attended the gubernatorial race and the vote on the woman suffrage amendment.

GEORGIA.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Atlanta, Nov. 3.—Early indications were that the balloting today in the "solid south" might be heavier than usual, in other than presidential elections, owing to the efforts of the Democrats to go out a full vote. Fair weather prevailed almost without exception. Tennessee held the center of interest, owing to the bitter campaign that has been waged between B. W.

An Advocate representative made the rounds of a number of the voting precincts this afternoon and at 1 o'clock the following vote had been cast:

Precinct A, First Ward	218
Precinct C, Second Ward	141
Precinct A, Second Ward	153
Precinct B, Second Ward	150
Precinct D, Second Ward	155
Precinct A, Third Ward	139
Precinct B, Third Ward	131
Precinct C, Third Ward	151
Precinct D, Third Ward	152
Precinct A, Fourth Ward	99
Precinct B, Fourth Ward	147
Precinct C, Fourth Ward	146
Precinct D, Fourth Ward	150
Precinct A, Fifth Ward	150
Precinct B, Fifth Ward	150
Precinct C, Fifth Ward	150
Precinct D, Fifth Ward	150
Precinct E, Fifth Ward	141
Precinct F, Fifth Ward	141
Precinct G, Fifth Ward	141
Precinct C, Sixth Ward	242

Hooper, Republican incumbent and Thomas C. Rye, the Democratic nominee for governor. The early vote was heavy.

NEW JERSEY.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Trenton, N. J., Nov. 3.—The bright Autumn weather helped to bring out a big vote today in New Jersey. There was no state ticket this year but there were close contests in some of the twelve congressional districts and in the senatorial and legislative districts.

OREGON.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Portland, Ore., Nov. 3.—General rains in Oregon today promised to keep voters from the polls, especially in the rural districts. Women voters who were participating in their first general election made up the majority of those voting early.

WASHINGTON.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Seattle, Wash., Nov. 3.—Rainy weather and enormous vote brought out interest in the proposed prohibition law were forecast for today in Washington. In Seattle where it is alleged thousands of men were fraudulently registered to vote against prohibition there were many challenges at the polls.

KANSAS.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Topeka, Kas., Nov. 3.—With probably two hundred thousand Kansas women voting for congressional and gubernatorial candidates for the first time and the male electors divided in bewildering fashion, apparently any result was considered possible in this state today. Returns promised to be slow because of the new Massachusetts law which is being given its first test. Fair weather aided in increasing the vote.

MARYLAND.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Baltimore, Nov. 3.—Although weather conditions were ideal, a light vote was anticipated at today's congressional election as there was little interest shown in the campaign. Democratic leaders expressed the utmost confidence in the return of John Walter Smith, to the Senate by a large majority.

WISCONSIN.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 3.—There was a rush for the polls when the booths opened in Milwaukee at 6 o'clock this morning starting the contests in the statewide election in Wisconsin. Interest here was keen on account of the Social-Democratic vote, that party making a strong campaign in the interest of the two congressional nominees and the county ticket.

The polls will remain open until 8 o'clock this evening. The weather is clear.

ILLINOIS.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Chicago, Nov. 3.—The early vote in Chicago was unusually heavy today and the few reports from downstate indicate similar activity. Although women cannot vote for United States senator apparently there was one woman vote cast early today by three men. Watchers reported a surprisingly heavy vote for William A. Cunniff, socialist candidate for county judge, a position which controls the election machinery in Chicago.

MISSOURI.

(Associated Press Telegram.) St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 3.—Fair and warm weather prevailed throughout Missouri today and scenes at the polls at the opening hours indicated a heavy vote should be cast. The voting was slow on account of the long referendum ballot and apparently there was much scratching of party tickets.

SAZONOFF

MADE STERN REPLY TO CONCLUSION NOTE SENT BY TURKISH GRAND VIZIER

In Which Ottoman Empire Sought to Throw Blame for Rupture On Russia.

(Associated Press Telegram.) London, Nov. 3.—A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says:

"In reply to a telegram from the Turkish grand vizier expressing regret at the rupture of the good relations existing between Turkey and Russia, owing to an attack by the Russian fleet, Sergius Sazonoff, the Russian minister of foreign affairs, denied that the Russian fleet was the first to fire and said he feared it was too late to enter into polemics of any kind with Turkey."

The telegram from the grand vizier was read to Foreign Minister Sazonoff by the Turkish charge d'affaires. It read:

"Convey to Sazonoff our deepest regret at the rupture of the good relations between the two powers which has been caused by the hostile acts of the Russian fleet. You can assure the imperial Russian government that the sublime Porte will not fail to seek an opportune solution to this question and will take all measures to prevent a repetition of such incidents."

"You can declare to Sazonoff that the Ottoman government has decided to forbid the Turkish fleet entering the Black sea. We hope in turn that the Russian fleet will not cruise near our littoral."

"In the interests of both countries I firmly hope that the imperial Russian government will show in this affair the same spirit of conciliation."

Foreign Minister Sazonoff in his reply, formally denied that the Russian fleet had been the first to undertake hostilities, and he expressed the belief that it was too late to enter into polemics of any kind. Sazonoff added that, as if Turkey had immediately accepted a German military and naval officers in Turkey it would have been possible to enter into negotiations with a view of providing satisfaction for the who had suffered by the aggressive acts of aggression on the Russian coast.

As the declaration of the Turkish charge altered nothing in the existing situation, the Russian foreign minister informed some that he would receive his passports on Monday.

Granville

(Special to The Advocate.) Granville, Nov. 3.—The Travelers' club did not postpone its regular meeting on account of an invitation to the musical given by the Monday Talks in Newark, as there were a few men who found it impossible to accept. But the program was condensed sufficiently to allow the departure of the many who wished to go on the 3:20 train. The program was given in the Year Book reading for next week, and next week's program on Robert Louis Stevenson was read yesterday by Mrs. J. S. Kull, who gave the club one of the most interesting afternoon's of the season. Her narration of this great man's life in Scotland, his death and burial in his beloved adherents, high on the mountain side, was full of power and pathos. The only other number was a song from the "Child's Garden of Verses" by Stevenson, set to music by Noyce and sung by Mrs. C.

REVIEW

OF TROOPS BY KING ALBERT AND PRESIDENT POINCARRE, SPIES OF THE SHELLS.

Which Flew Near From Big German Guns—Soldiers Were All Enthusiastic.

(Associated Press Telegram.) Paris, Nov. 3.—A bombardment of Furnes in Belgium, 25 miles southwest of Brussels by the Germans, did not prevent the review there yesterday of the French and Belgian troops by President Poincarre of France and King Albert of Belgium and Alexandre Millerand, the French war minister.

While the shells of the German guns, apparently directed against the railroad station at Furnes, were exploding at frequent intervals, the president, king and war minister were in the neighborhood of the hotel de Ville. There to the strains of "The Marseillaise" and "The Brabanconne," the national airs of the two countries, which were given with much spirit, the soldiers of France and Belgium passed by. All the men displayed the greatest enthusiasm.

President Poincarre, Minister Millerand and General Joffre had a long interview with the king to whom the president expressed fervent admiration for the Belgians and best wishes on behalf of France. Before the review President Poincarre and his party paid their respects to Queen Elizabeth of Belgium at the royal residence. On leaving the president passed the afternoon among the French troops operating on the Ypres front.

President Poincarre was in Dunkirk Sunday evening where he saw Lord Kitchener, the British minister of war and Premier Charles DeRocheville of Belgium.

DRASTIC MEANS OF HOLLAND TO RAISE WAR FUND

(Associated Press Telegram.) The Hague, Nov. 3.—(Midnight, via London.) A Dutch steam trawler Monday afternoon met the famous German submarine U-29 off Haaks Huisdijk, near Helder, on the north coast of Holland. The German submarine, according to the trawler's sailors, was disabled as the result of having become entangled with some fishing nets.

In order to cope with the terrible war burden of 1,000,000 guilders (about $100,000) daily for the mobilization the Dutch government proposes to institute an export tax on all such materials, which, through war or other circumstances, have increased exorbitantly in price.

The government has also announced that it will at once introduce a parliamentary bill for a loan of 250,000,000 guilders (about $25,000,000). If the loan is not subscribed for by private parties, the government will force the highest taxpayers to take a part of the loan in proportion to their capital.

All fortunes under 50,000 guilders (about $5,000) will be made exempt.

Wilson Policy in Mexico.

It has been easy to criticize the President's Mexican policy. He has been confronted by the most perplexing problem our government has had to face since the Civil war. Whatever he did was sure to be condemned. And he has to face a most reckless and insincere kind of criticism.

When the Constitutionalists captured Tampico, and were permitted to import arms, the critics of the administration bitterly condemned the government for favoring the rebels. A few days later, when Huerta got a supply of arms from a German ship, the same people bitterly condemned the President for precisely the opposite thing for letting Huerta have the arms.

Now both these contentions could not have been correct. One destroyed the other. The use of two arguments that precisely neutralized each other proved that these critics were not sincerely working with their President. They were not trying to discuss fairly a great public question and seeking to throw some light on it. They were talking simply to make mischief. Any point was good, so long as it hurt the administration, and no matter if it controverted some point they had made the day before.

The President brought these troubles to a head. Had he pursued a policy of absolute non-interference, had he recognized Huerta as a great many Republicans urged, and kept his hands absolutely off, the war would have gone on indefinitely. Huerta could never have subdued the Northern rebels. And without arms, they would have made slower progress than they did.

Had this policy been pursued, the United States would have eventually wearied of interminable war next door. This administration or the next would have been forced to intervene. The Wilson policy simply took the trouble and the worry in 1914, instead of shifting it off on some future administration.

student of music must learn to play a passage correctly before he can play it up to time. It is to be feared that this insistence on speed is developing thousands of poor writers, who feel that quantity rather than quality is the end in view.

Speed writing is not as desirable as it was a few years ago. The very wide use of the typewriter has greatly reduced the amount of hand work to be done. The business man needs legibility first, so that when he makes a memorandum they shall be legible to himself and others.

Of course book-keepers still need speed. But probably not one person in a hundred becomes a book-keeper. Is it wise to train every one to meet the needs of a small class? Should a pupil ever be encouraged to speed up, until he has acquired the habit of clear, plain writing? It will not seem so to sensible people.

Wasted Efforts.

(Philadelphia Record.)

Republican attacks upon the Underwood revenue law are like the gnawing at a file which ruins the teeth without producing any impression on the file. The Republicans' attack is viciously first on one side and then on another and accomplish nothing except the damage of their own policies.

At first they attacked it on the ground that it was letting in a flood of foreign manufactures and was cutting our mills out of business. When the statistics of foreign commerce were issued they showed a decrease of imports, which refuted the first line of Republican attack. Then they changed to the second, which was that it was keeping out imports, and therefore preventing revenue. A little reflection refuted them that if imports were reduced it was bad Republican policy to keep the fact paraded before the voters, especially in protectionist localities. Then they took up the third line and attacked the law on the ground that it reduced exports.

Even the schoolboy, or the casual man in the street, knows that a tariff law does not reduce exports, and at present exports are going out of the country at a rate that breaks records. What more can the Republicans do? Nothing. The file is three-sided, and the Republicans have broken their teeth on each of the sides. But the recurrence of a war which reduces our imports and cuts off some of our revenue has given the Republicans one more chance. They are declaring that there is no war in Europe; our commerce is not interfered with; the deficient revenue obviated the Democrats to impose additional taxes.

The customs collections of the last fiscal year were $26,000,000 less than in the preceding fiscal year, because the Democrats had reduced taxation, and the internal revenue was $18,000,000 greater because the Democrats had imposed an income tax which placed more of the burden of the government upon the persons who were best able to bear it. Thus the aggregate revenue was larger than it was under the Republicans.

Queer Publication.

Some years ago the following apologetic explanation for a compositor's blunder appeared in a leading weekly literary journal published in London: "In our last number, as we discovered unfortunately too late for correction, we announced that Mr. John Stuart Mill's inaugural address lately delivered before the University of St. Andrews had since been published by him in the form of a five shilling elephant." Even the most ardent believers in Mr. Mill's powers among our readers will probably have received this announcement with some incredulity. The fact is that by an error of the press the word "elephant" was substituted for "pamphlet," and the mistake, although the proof was read and reread, luckily escaped the corrector's eye.

You couldn't fracture with a club the kind of sponge cake that you dish; alas, for dear old mother's grub throughout my days I vainly wish. Then Susan, burdened with her cares, worn out, discouraged, sad and weak, sits down beneath the cellar stairs, and weeps in German, French and Greek. ## AUTHORITIES DISINFECTED STOCK YARDS

AN AREA FULLY A MILE SQUARE WAS SUBJECTED TO POWERFUL FUMIGATION.

While Live Stock Cars Were Subjected to Same Process—Employees Isolated.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, Nov. 3.—A force of 1000 men today began disinfecting the Union Stock Yards, the world's greatest cattle market, which yesterday was placed under partial quarantine by federal authorities to prevent the spread of foot and mouth disease to live stock herds throughout the middle west.

Although not a single case of the disease has been found at the Chicago yards, several carloads of cattle from Michigan, believed to have been exposed, have been received here, and re-shipped. As the disease is spread through contact, every section of the yards covering a district a mile square, is to be disinfected. The same process of fumigation will be applied to all live stock cars. The task, it was said, would require a week or more.

Hundreds of the 65,000 employees at the yards have been isolated as a result of the quarantine. Three hundred stockmen, who recently arrived with cattle from the infected districts will be obliged to remain at the yards until the quarantine is lifted.

The quarantine prohibits the shipment of livestock out of Chicago, except to Illinois points for immediate slaughter. It makes it impossible for stockmen in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Pennsylvania to purchase "feeder" cattle in Chicago and out of the small supply of cattle for slaughter which have been received in Chicago from these states. No livestock, with the exception of horses and mules, may be shipped out of the four states or Illinois.

Foot and mouth disease was admitted today to have broken out in the Union Stock Yards here. All of the federal government inspectors at the yards have expressed the opinion to Dr. R. A. Ramsey, of Washington, who is in the city, in charge of the field investigation of the epidemic. While no doubt exists that the disease has attacked a cow at the yards, formal announcement of the fact will be withheld until tomorrow, pending scientific proof from a calf which has been inoculated with virus from the cow's mouth.

The discovery of the case is not expected to make necessary any extension of the quarantine which went into effect at the yards yesterday. Immediate losses in the Chicago yards may run into several hundred dollars and indirectly into far greater amounts as the infection is in the prize livestock that was recently brought here from all parts of the United States for exhibition and that represents the finest breeding herds of the country.

The cow under observation is a high priced animal of the Holstein variety.

CLEVELAND YARDS ARE NOW QUARANTINED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, Nov. 3.—The Cleveland stock yards were placed under federal quarantine today, the order being a part of the plan inaugurated in other cities yesterday to prevent spread of foot and mouth disease, discovered among livestock. The order was issued by Dr. H. H. George, United States inspector in charge of the department of animal husbandry in Cleveland.

DEPARTMENT OFFICERS ANXIOUSLY AWAITING FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Nov. 3.—With the federal quarantine to prevent the spread of foot and mouth disease among cattle in the middle western and other states in full force, officials of the department of agriculture today anxiously awaited further developments in the situation. In the meantime federal inspectors were at work in some of the infected districts and others were under orders to proceed to the other districts. Officials here were hopeful that the quarantine measures already taken would prove effective in checking the progress of the disease.

Under Secretary Houston's order the quarantine was extended to include all of Pennsylvania, Indiana,

U. S. TROOPS ORDERED TO STRIKE ZONE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Nov. 3.—It has been decided to send federal troops into the Hartford Valley, Ark., strike zone. Orders have been prepared at the war department and Secretary Garrison after a conference with Attorney General Gregory at 4 p. m. today will make a public statement of reasons for the action.

The situation was such that all that was needed to move the troops was the department's order. Officials of the department were fully prepared for its issue, conditioned that only an eleven-hour development could change the plans.

Federal Judge Youmans has reported he is unable to enforce his orders in the strike zone, where mining properties are in the hands of receivers appointed by the United States court and deputy marshals have been unable to cope with the situation.

DISEASE STARTED IN CATTLE FROM NOTRE DAME UNIVERSITY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Nov. 3.—Officials of the department of agriculture were notified today that the foot and mouth disease in the middle west had been discovered in the cattle herd of Notre Dame university. The entire herd of 300 blooded cattle will be destroyed immediately and the carcasses buried in lime to prevent spread of contagion. Half the appraised value of the herd will be borne by the federal government and half by the state of Indiana.

One hundred and sixty-five herds—about 1000 animals—already have been destroyed in Michigan and Indiana.

A corps of 107 inspectors traveling in Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania to locate new outbreaks, reported none early today in localities outside those previously affected.

The Carranza, Villa and Zapata adherents alike greeted the choice with "vivas" and cheers.

HORSEWHIP USED BY AN IRATE WIFE TAMES HUSBAND

There were exciting times in the vicinity of Harrison street late Monday afternoon when an injured wife followed her spouse into a well known resort and then a scolded him with a horsewhip.

The man, a well known resident of Fourth street has been giving the police department more or less trouble for some time. When he started out for a little time Monday afternoon he was not aware that he was being shadowed by his better half. After he had entered the house she suddenly appeared and began wielding the rawhide.

Smarting under the lashes the frightened man made a dash for the kitchen door only to be assailed by his frau.

life in close pursuit. He never knew that he was a spy before, but it was said he made a professional look like an amateur.

Fortunately he got away, but not before he had received a number of pellets across his body. He was afraid to go home and so he took a little courage-water with the result that the police picked him up shortly after midnight. Now he must face trial in person.

Large audiences enjoyed the production of "Burning Daylight," at the Epheum Monday afternoon and evening, a six-reel feature taken from Jack London's famous novel of the same name.

It is a story of the Klondike, the sudden elevation to wealth of one of the sturdy Alaskan frontiers who took millions to San Francisco and took a eager ambition to acquire more riches lost sight of the better things of life; then the sudden awakening when struck by Cupid's shaft and the dispensing of his millions in order to win the girl with whom he had fallen

MRS. THOMSON TELLS WOMEN

How She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the pains were intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I tried it at once and found much relief. After that I had no pains at all and could do my housework and shopping the same as always. For years I have praised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way."—Mrs. THOMSON, 649 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to carry women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE REGENERATION OF CHURCH AND WORLD

Life Everlasting Obtainable Only In the Lord Jesus Christ.

WHERE FATHER ADAM FAILED

Why Regeneration Is Necessary—Why It Began at the First Advent and Not Sooner—Why the Limitations of the Present Age—The Low and Narrow Gate—The Narrow and Rough Pathway—Why Different Kind of Regeneration During the Millennium—Why the World Will Have an Easier Pathway Up to Life Everlasting Than Is Now Granted the Church. What and Why the Differences Between the Two Regenerations.

PASTOR RUSSELL

New York City, Nov. 1.—Pastor Russell, at New York City Temple, took for his subject "The Regeneration of the Church and the World. What are They? Why Different?" His text was, "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." (John 3:7.) He said in part:

In the past many of us have studied the Bible in a very careless manner, neglecting to give to its inspired words the consideration and respect they deserve. In many cases, the original thought has been utterly lost because of some fanciful interpretation. Consequently very few Christian people have any concrete idea of the meaning of our text, and of other Bible statements respecting the future regeneration of the world.

Regeneration, or a second birth, is absolutely necessary if we would attain everlasting life. The fault lies not with our Creator, that He made us incomplete; for, as the Bible declares, "all His work is perfect." The fault is chargeable to sin. "By one man's disobedience sin entered into the world, and death as the result of sin; so death passed upon all men, because all are sinners."

This sentence of death upon Father Adam hindered him from giving to his children the perfection of life in which he was created. His entire race has been born into the world for six thousand years under a death sentence, or curse. God cannot alter that sentence. The forfeited life cannot be prolonged; the sentence of death cannot be set aside; the Supreme Judge of the Universe cannot for any reason declare that He erred in His condemnation of our race. He cannot set aside His own decision. But God could provide for the regenerating of Adam and his race. To generate, as all know, signifies to bring into life. Adam failed to generate a race to life; he merely generated a great race of thousands of millions possessed of only a spark of life—a dying race.

The Divine Provision is that our Lord Jesus left the glory of the Heavenly condition and became a man for the purpose of ransoming, or redeeming, Adam and his race, which shared his condemnation. The record is that this sacrificed life had by Jesus is sufficient as a cancellation of all Adamic sin. On the basis of that sacrifice, and in the carrying out of the Heavenly Father's Program, Jesus was raised from the dead "a quickening Spirit," a life-giving Personage, with a glory far higher than that which He had when He came into the world. "Him hath God highly exalted, and given Him a name which is above every name."—Philippians 2:9.

The glorified Jesus is Scripturally termed the Second Adam, the Life-Giver or Regenerator, and also the Everlasting Father—that is, the Father who gives everlasting life. The time for the giving of life to the world by this great Second Adam, whom God hath appointed, is to be the thousand years of His Messianic Reign. Throughout the Millennium it will be the work of Christ Jesus, as the glorified Second Adam, to regenerate the first Adam and all his race. The regenerating influences will begin with their awakening from the sleep of death, in harmony with the Master's declaration, "The hour is coming in which all that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the Son of Man, and come forth."—John 5:28, 29.

The Regeneration of the World. The coming forth from the tomb will be the beginning of the regenerative work, but not by any means its completion. It will be merely a preparatory work. The awakened sleepers will be in the same condition of mind that they were in when they fell asleep—in a very similar condition to those who will be living on the earth at that time. Before any of them can be regenerated, they must be brought to a knowledge of the Truth. Their eyes and their ears of understanding must be opened. The Scriptures assure us that this will be accomplished. "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped." (Isaiah 35:5.) "The earth shall be full of the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."—Habakkuk 2:14; Isaiah 11:9.

The news of God's Love and of the possibilities of return to His favor through the atoning work of Jesus being clearly demonstrated to all, each will have the opportunity of deciding for himself whether or not he desires to return to human perfection and the blessed possibilities of everlasting life. To do so, he must be begotten again by the Life-Giver; and the Life-Giver will beget again only those who desire the new life. Wilful rejectors of the privilege, we are assured, will die the Second Death; while those who accept the Savior's proposals will come under helpful and disciplinary experiences which will gradually lift them up, mentally, morally and physically, to perfection—to all that was lost for them in Father Adam's disobedience and its penalty, and all that was regained for them by the obedience of Jesus and the Divine arrangement of His Messianic Kingdom for the regeneration of the world.

The words beget, born and regenerate or born again, associate themselves in our minds with our natural birth; but we are not to expect, as Nicodemus queried, that any would again be born as an infant from a mother. The begetting to a new birth will be in the mind—a covenant relationship with the Life-Giver.

The Church the Second Eve. Nevertheless, there is a beautiful analogy, complete in every feature; for while Father Adam was designed to be the life-giver, or father, or generator of the race, Mother Eve was designed to be his nourisher, care-taker and instructor, to bring the race up to complete development. So while Jesus is the Life-Giver in the sense that He gave His own life as a ransom price for Adam, it is also a part of the Divine Program that there should be not only a Second Adam, but also a Second Eve.

The world will need not only the start of the new life during the Millennium, but also the care and nourishment necessary for their development and uplift for restoration to perfection. God's provision is that the Church, called especially for the purpose and especially qualified for it during this Gospel Age, shall be the Anti-typical Eve—the Mother of the world—the caretakers, nourishers, supervisors, in respect to all regenerated, or regenerated, by the Life-Giver Jesus. What a beautiful prospect of collaboration with the Savior in His great work of regenerating Adam and his race from the effects of Adamic sin and the death sentence!

The Divine picture is very complete. While Adam was alone he did not become a father. God caused him to fall into a deep sleep, and from his side took Mother Eve to be his bride, his collaborator, his joint heir in his inheritance, and his assistant in the work of generating the human family. So our Lord Jesus has not yet become a father. But He has gone into the sleep of death, His side has been wounded, and the first result is the gradual development, during the past eighteen centuries, of a bride class. As Jesus passed from the human condition to the spirit condition, He came ready to be the Second Adam, so the Church class, as the New Creation, must pass from the human condition to the spirit condition, and must share in the First Resurrection, before she can fulfill her part in God's great Plan as the Second Eve.

In view of this work that God has outlined for His Son and for the Church, is it any wonder that He should consider it necessary to give us lessons and tests in the loyalty and obedience? Is it any wonder, in view of the work which He has for us to do for mankind, that He declares that as the Redeemer Jesus was given deep experiences in suffering, in order to be a merciful and faithful High Priest in the things of God in relation to humanity, so the Church, His Bride, members of His Body, must share these experiences? When we come to understand the High Calling of God to the Church and the great work that is yet to be accomplished for and in the world of mankind, we are amazed?

The Church's Regeneration Different. It was not Jehovah's program for His Son that He should change to human nature permanently. On the contrary, we are distinctly told that the Logos took the form of a servant for the suffering of death, and not for any other purpose. This purpose having been accomplished, the Father raised Him up by His own Power to spirit nature and glory—"where He was before," but to a still higher station on the spirit plane—"far above angels, principalities and powers, and every name that is named." This meant a regeneration, or second birth, for Jesus; for "flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom."—1 Cor. 15:50.

Our Savior exchanged His spirit condition, or nature, for the human, but He could not exchange the human nature for the spiritual; else there would have been no object served in His humiliation. His human life was to be given up sacrificially as the Redemption-price for Adam's life and, therefore, as the Redemption-price of the whole world, since all lost life through Adam's disobedience. The application of the Master's sacrifice life would have left Him without any life-rights as a man, but God provided for His regeneration; that is to say, for His re-birth.

The sacrifice of Himself as a human being was made when Jesus was thirty years of age, and was symbolized by His immersion; and immediately the Father beget Him again, not to be a human being, but a spirit being. He was begotten of the Holy Spirit, which descended upon Him in a form like a dove. For three and a half years Jesus, as a New Creature, spirit-begotten, used His flesh body, consecrated to death, having no other. In it, "He was tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin"; and having demonstrated His loyalty to God, even unto death at Calvary, the Father raised Him from the dead on the third day—not a man, but a New Creature.

In other words, Jesus experienced the same transformation that the Apostle mentioned, saying, "It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power; it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory; it is sown an animal body; it is raised a spiritual body." After His resurrection, Jesus illustrated the lesson given to Nicodemus, of which our text is a part. He could, and did, come and go like the wind. Some seven times during the forty days, He appeared for brief intervals for the instruction of His disciples, just as angels have done. Later, He ascended up on High. "Now the Lord is that Spirit."—the Second Adam.—2 Cor. 5:17; 1 Corinthians 15:45, 47.

The Bible tells us that God from the very beginning had foreknown that Jesus would accomplish this work and become the Father of Adam and his race by regeneration; and the Apostle assures us that God foreknew also the Church as the Bride of Christ and His joint-heir in His Kingdom. And Jesus said to some of the earliest members of the Church class, "In the regeneration (in the Millennium) . . . ye shall sit upon thrones." (Matthew 19:28.) Elsewhere He declared, "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My Throne."—Rev. 3:21.

The Father purposed that the Bride class should be selected from amongst the members of the fallen race, and should be prepared for their work of future glory before the world's would commence. They posed also that this Bride class should have a change of nature similar to that which Jesus experienced. It would begin with them as with Him, at the time of consecration and spirit begetting, and culminate with them as with Him, in the resurrection change. Thus the Church has the promise that she shall be like her Lord, as He is, and share His glory. (1 John 3:2; Romans 8:17.) St. Peter, speaking of the call of the Church, declared that God gave unto this class "exceeding great and precious promises"—that by these promises working in their consecrated hearts to will and to do God's good pleasure, this class might become "partakers of the Divine Nature."—2 Peter 1:4.

"Life and Immortality Brought to Light."

It is manifest that this begetting of the Church to a change of nature is very different from the begetting provided for the world—regeneration, or re-beggetting, to the human nature which Adam lost, but which Christ redeemed for the world. So also we have noted that the Church has a different Father, Jesus is not the Father, or Life-Giver, of this Divine life. He did not redeem it or secure it for anybody. He redeemed human nature and secured the right to regenerate the world to human nature.

The Church's begetting, or regeneration, is by the Heavenly Father Himself; as the Scriptures distinctly say, "The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ hath begotten us." (1 Peter 1:3.) He alone can give this Divine Nature. This does not signify that the Church is not indebted to her Redeemer; for the Scriptures distinctly state that without Him we could do nothing; that "by His stripes we are healed"; and that before the Heavenly Father would deal with us at all—before He would accept our consecration, or sacrifice—it was necessary that Jesus should appear on our behalf as our Advocate and Surety, and thus open up to us a New Way of Life.

Thus, as St. Paul declares, "Christ brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel"—life everlasting to the world and immortality, or the Divine Nature, for the Church.

Prior to our Lord's First Advent, the way of life was not manifested; no provision had been made for it except in the Divine Promise. God had promised His friend Abraham that somehow, sometime, all the world would be blessed; and that meant that all the world would be released from the curse of death and experience the Divine blessing, which signifies life everlasting—not that the world will be given this blessing unconditionally, but the opportunity for this blessing will be extended to every member of Adam's race, and to himself, for acceptance or rejection at their will. Then came the second part of the statement to Abraham; namely, that this blessing should come through his Seed, his posterity. This implies that some special members of Adam's race, of a faithful line, would be greatly exalted to honorable positions, where they would be capable of blessing the remainder of the world, their brethren.

St. Paul points us to the fact that God offered this great privilege to the Natural Seed of Abraham, knowing all the while that they were sinners and would be unable to comply with the conditions, but making of them a typical people, and thereby incidentally blessing them, though with a lesser blessing. The true Seed of Abraham, through whom this promised blessing shall come, St. Paul most positively declares, is first of all the Lord Jesus Christ—the great Life-Giver, the Father who gives everlasting life—the Second Adam.

Then, with equal clearness, the Apostle points out that the Church, the Bride of Christ, selected during this Gospel Age from all nations and all denominations, is to be also a participant in the blessing work, and to be counted in as a part of Abraham's Seed. His words are, "Which Seed is Christ." And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's Seed, and heirs according to the Promise."—Gal. 3:16, 29.

Duty First. The carelessness of danger which characterizes certain soldiers does not always extend to the persons about them. The French marshal Bugeaud was once dictating very near a battlefield a letter to his secretary.

"Why are you stopping?" asked the marshal. "The bomb!" gasped the secretary. "Have I said anything about a bomb?"

"No—but the bomb—the bomb!" "Now, what," said the marshal impatiently, "has the bomb got to do with the letter I am dictating to you? Go on with your writing." He resumed his dictation.

First Reaping Machine. In Farm and Fireside appears an article about Cyrus H. McCormick—the man who made the first successful reaper. He built it as a boy without his father's knowing it and tried it out one fall. It was not entirely a success, but he made some changes and tried it again. Finally, in 1831, he made his first successful reaper. He kept on making improvements and in 1834 had a machine good enough to patent. He offered them for sale for $20 apiece, but no one would buy. Finally, in 1835, he invited a lot of farmers to see it work. It cut two acres an hour. That was really wonderful in those days, but still no one would buy it. The next year, 1840, a man at Lepp, Va., bought the first one and paid $20 for it. It worked well, and faith in the new invention began to spread.

For Sick Kidneys
 Rheuma Dissolves the Poison Choking All the Passages.

Aids the Bowels and Blood in Throwing off All Rheumatism.

If your kidneys are out of order, choked up with poisonous sediment and inflamed from the pressure of sharp uric acid crystals along the walls, your whole system will soon be deranged, for the poison backs up from the urine into the blood and impregnates every corpuscle with deadly flint-like particles. Rheumatism easily creeps in and the heart becomes weakened by lack of infusion of healthy blood.

Get a bottle of Rheuma from T. J. Evans, or any druggist, for 5c. This standard remedy acts quickly on sick kidneys, constipated bowels, a sleepy liver, and creates fresh healthy blood. Your organs will all be cleaned and put in shape to throw off the poison, and the agencies of rheumatism will quickly disappear.

Most rheumatism remedies weaken the heart because they contain drugs which thin the blood. Rheuma is perfectly harmless, but is guaranteed to give satisfaction.

MARY A. MONROE NOW PROMINENT AS AN EDUCATOR

Makes Address to Superintendents and Principals of Schools in Washington State.

Mrs. Mary A. Monroe, of Spokane, Wash., president of the Washington Educational Association, recently delivered a most interesting and instructive address before the association which had assembled in Tacoma. Mrs. Monroe was formerly Miss Mary Simpson, of Newark, daughter of Mrs. John Simpson, and was an instructor in the Central building in this city. Her husband was for several years principal of the East Main street building.

Since going to the western state Mrs. Monroe through her efficient work, has attained prominence in the educational circles of the state of Washington, and is now president of the Washington Educational Association, consisting of superintendents and principals of the state.

In her address recently delivered at Tacoma, Mrs. Monroe talked upon the subject of "The Best Teacher." Mrs. Monroe said the best teacher is the teacher who observes the beauties of nature about her and transmits something of the green forest, rugged mountains, vast wheat fields and rolling prairies to the pupils under her.

The speaker told of the change in sentiment regarding the schools. "No one familiar with the educational outlook can doubt that changes have occurred in the ideas and sentiments of the American people regarding functions of the public schools. This is a demand that the schools shall fit all children for life instead of making an effort to fit the few for the institutions higher up. This demand has brought about the discussion and investigation of vocational training. Whether this training is to be a part of the present school system or whether there will be a double system of education remains to be determined by those making a study of the facts."

OUTRAGE

PERPETRATED BY DOZEN BOYS OF SENIOR CLASS OF HIGH SCHOOL.

Police Turned Culprits Over to School Authorities for Serious Offense.

A dozen boys of the Senior class of the High School are in serious trouble as the result of a prank Monday evening and their fate will probably be settled by the school board at a meeting to be held this evening.

Monday evening the boys secured pails of whitening and entering the building climbed to the roof and proceeded to decorate it with their numerals, "15." They also did the same thing on the inside steps leading to the corridors and on the corridors floors.

Some one who had seen the boys telephoned the police department but the boys got away leaving a bicycle behind. That was their undoing for Prof. Barnes, high school principal, recognized it and as a result soon obtained evidence to convict the youths and they came forward with a confession, naming all who participated.

Superintendent Wilson Hawkins and Principal O. J. Barnes as the first punishment for the boys, ordered them to take buckets of water this afternoon after class hours and wash all the whitening from the roof. They must also pay for extra janitor service for cleaning the steps and corridors which was done early Tuesday morning when the janitors opened the building.

The act of the boys was criminal, defacing property, and Chi F. Sheridan and Mayor Higbee have agreed to turn the offenders over to the school authorities and let them act. Their case is a serious one and they will probably be dealt with severely.

Knox County Politicians Here.

Genuine Eczema Remedy

New Remedy That Heals Eczema Quickly.

Evans' Drug Store sold hundreds of jars of Hokara, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin foot. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding, itching have found relief in Hokara. No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara should give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases should be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal-sized jar today at the very low price of 25c, and with every package goes Evans' Drug Store guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory.

CURE YOUR COLD IN A FEW HOURS AND FEEL FINE

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

MAN WHO AIDED FUGITIVE SLAVES, IS DEAD AGED 98

(Associated Press Telegram)
 Chicago, Nov. 3.—James Henry Osgood, founder of the "underground railroad" by which fugitive slaves were aided in escaping north, died here yesterday at the age of 98 years.

Mr. Osgood was born in Springfield, Mass.

ATTEMPT TO ALLAY ANY RELIGIOUS FURY AMONG THE INDIANS.

(Associated Press Telegram)
 London, Nov. 3.—A despatch from Delhi, India, to Reuters Telegram Company says that in view of the outbreak in Turkey it was authoritatively announced throughout India that no religious question was involved and that the Mohammedan holy palaces in Arabia are immune from attack by the British naval and military forces provided the pilgrims from India to these places are not interfered with.

At the request of Great Britain, the despatch adds France and Russia have given similar assurances.

SAY CROWN PRINCE IS WOUNDED, BUT NOT SERIOUSLY

(Associated Press Telegram)

Geneva, Switzerland, via Paris, Nov. 3.—For several days rumors have drifted into Basel that Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany, had been wounded in the fighting in France. These reports could not be verified, but travelers who arrived here Monday from Strassburg insist that they are true. They say that the prince is seriously though not mortally wounded and has been taken to the palace at Strassburg for treatment. Several specialists from Berlin, they declare have arrived at Strassburg to take care of him.

Many a fellow has signed the pledge so often that he no longer believes in signs.

Circumstances alter cases, especially financial circumstances.

CASCARETS FOR YOUR BOWELS IF HEADACHY, SICK

Get a 10-cent box. Put aside—just once—the Salts, Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters which merely force a passage-way through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Severe Colds, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

Don't Delay Treating Your Cough.

A slight cough often becomes serious. Lungs get congested. Bronchial Tubes fill with mucus. Your vitality is reduced. You need Dr. Bell's Fine-Tar-Honey. It soothes your irritated air passages, loosens mucus and makes your system resist Colds. Give the Baby and Children Dr. Bell's Fine-Tar-Honey. It's guaranteed to help them. Only 25c. at your druggist.

Genius and laziness often go hand in hand. The people who are most accomplished don't always accomplish the most.
